

Allowing the Sat. Radio Companies to use their signals how the please, to provide brocasts to their paying customers is an excellant idea and business model for them. IF the Local Radio Companies are unable to compete with XM or Siruis then they should re-evualte how they operate